

Pro Sports Math Challenge

Solve these multi-step soccer, baseball, and basketball word problems!

Name: _____ Date: _____

1 SOCCER GEAR

The Lightning soccer club buys 12 new training jerseys for 9 dollars each. They use a 18 dollar discount coupon at the register. If the 6 players on the team split the remaining cost equally, how many dollars does each player pay?

Work:

Answer: _____

2 BASEBALL EQUIPMENT

A sports store has 150 wooden baseball bats in stock. They sell 6 boxes of bats to a high school team, with 12 bats in each box. The store owner divides the remaining bats equally among 6 local youth leagues. How many bats does each league get?

Work:

Answer: _____

3 BASKETBALL COLLECTIBLES

Leo buys 4 packs of basketball collector stickers, with 15 stickers in each pack. He gives 18 stickers to his younger brother. He divides his remaining stickers equally into 6 team scrapbooks. How many stickers go into each scrapbook?

Work:

Answer: _____

4 SOCCER PRACTICE

Coach Marcus has 95 orange cones for soccer practice. He leaves 15 of them in his garage and divides the rest equally into 5 gear bags. During practice, he takes 4 cones out of one bag to mark the goalposts. How many cones are left in that bag?

Work:

Answer: _____

5 BASEBALL CARDS

Maya has a collection of 200 pro baseball cards. She sells 4 packs of cards to her friends, with 15 cards in each pack. She divides the remaining cards equally among 7 storage binders. How many cards are in each binder?

Work:

Answer: _____

The Tigers basketball team scored 110 points in their last game. They scored 12 of those points from free throws and made 6 three-pointer shots. If all the other points came from regular 2-point baskets, how many 2-point baskets did they make?

Work:

Answer: _____

Answer Key

Pro Sports Math Challenge · Grade 4

1. The Lightning soccer club buys 12 new training jerseys for 9 dollars each. They use a 18 dollar discount coupon at the register. If the 6 players on the team split the remaining cost equally, how many dollars does each player pay? 15
2. A sports store has 150 wooden baseball bats in stock. They sell 6 boxes of bats to a high school team, with 12 bats in each box. The store owner divides the remaining bats equally among 6 local youth leagues. How many bats does each league get? 13
3. Leo buys 4 packs of basketball collector stickers, with 15 stickers in each pack. He gives 18 stickers to his younger brother. He divides his remaining stickers equally into 6 team scrapbooks. How many stickers go into each scrapbook? 7
4. Coach Marcus has 95 orange cones for soccer practice. He leaves 15 of them in his garage and divides the rest equally into 5 gear bags. During practice, he takes 4 cones out of one bag to mark the goalposts. How many cones are left in that bag? 12
5. Maya has a collection of 200 pro baseball cards. She sells 4 packs of cards to her friends, with 15 cards in each pack. She divides the remaining cards equally among 7 storage binders. How many cards are in each binder? 20
6. The Tigers basketball team scored 110 points in their last game. They scored 12 of those points from free throws and made 6 three-pointer shots. If all the other points came from regular 2-point baskets, how many 2-point baskets did they make? 40