

Purr-fect Math Adventures

Multi-Step Math Challenges for Cat Lovers

Name: _____ Date: _____

1 SHELTER BUDGETING

A rescue group gets a donation of 500 dollars. They buy 8 cat trees that cost 35 dollars each and 12 collars that cost 6 dollars each. How much money do they have left?

Work: _____

Answer: _____

2 CAT CAFE PLANNING

A cat cafe has 4 rooms. Each room holds 8 cats. Three rooms are completely full, and one room is only half full. If each cat needs 3 toys, how many toys are there in total?

Work: _____

Answer: _____

3 TREAT SHARING

Luna has 120 cat treats. She drops 12 on the floor and throws them away. She divides the remaining treats equally among her 6 cats. If each cat eats 2 treats a day, how many days will one cat's share last?

Work: _____

Answer: _____

4 CATTERY PENS

A farm has 4 mother cats. Each mother cat has 5 kittens. Later, 6 of the kittens are adopted. The farmer groups all the remaining cats and kittens into pens with 3 felines in each pen. How many pens are used?

Work:

Answer: _____

5 CAT SHOW SCORING

At a cat beauty show, Max starts with 150 points. He loses 4 points for each of his 3 bent whiskers. He earns 15 extra points for having a shiny coat. The judges then double his total score. What is Max's final score?

Work:

Answer: _____

6 VET CLINIC FINANCES

A vet clinic charges 50 dollars for a checkup and 20 dollars for a shot. Dr. Kim checks 8 cats and gives 5 of them shots. The clinic spends 230 dollars of this money on supplies and splits the rest equally among 3 helpers. How many dollars does each helper get?

Work:

Answer: _____

Answer Key

Purr-fect Math Adventures · Grade 7

1. A rescue group gets a donation of 500 dollars. They buy 8 cat trees that cost 35 dollars each and 12 collars that cost 6 dollars each. How much money do they have left? 148
2. A cat cafe has 4 rooms. Each room holds 8 cats. Three rooms are completely full, and one room is only half full. If each cat needs 3 toys, how many toys are there in total? 84
3. Luna has 120 cat treats. She drops 12 on the floor and throws them away. She divides the remaining treats equally among her 6 cats. If each cat eats 2 treats a day, how many days will one cat's share last? 9
4. A farm has 4 mother cats. Each mother cat has 5 kittens. Later, 6 of the kittens are adopted. The farmer groups all the remaining cats and kittens into pens with 3 felines in each pen. How many pens are used? 6
5. At a cat beauty show, Max starts with 150 points. He loses 4 points for each of his 3 bent whiskers. He earns 15 extra points for having a shiny coat. The judges then double his total score. What is Max's final score? 306
6. A vet clinic charges 50 dollars for a checkup and 20 dollars for a shot. Dr. Kim checks 8 cats and gives 5 of them shots. The clinic spends 230 dollars of this money on supplies and splits the rest equally among 3 helpers. How many dollars does each helper get? 90